

Do you have a child who is no longer a good fit at your preschool? Do this child's challenges put them at risk for expulsion? Now, there's support available to you.

The Ohio Preschool Expulsion Prevention Partnership

Nationwide Children's Hospital, in collaboration with the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, provides resources to early childhood programs that have children in their setting facing potential expulsion. The Ohio Preschool Expulsion Prevention Partnership can provide on-site observation, feedback and strategies, resources regarding behavioral supports and recommendations for professional development related to early childhood mental health topics. Programs can access this service by calling 1-844-678-ABCs (2227) or by visiting the website at www.Nationwidechildrens.org/Preschool-Expulsion-Prevention.

Action for Children is in partnership with Nationwide Children's Hospital and Ohio Mental Health and Addiction Services. Please call 614-224-0222 ext. 260 if you are interested in scheduling behavioral health training only.

Please leave your name, phone number and a brief message, and an Action for Children representative will contact you within 48 hours.
