

CHILDREN'S BOOK PICK FOR

Black History Month

Abby's Book Pick:

You Matter, written and illustrated by Christian Robinson

Why We Love It:

"You Matter is a vibrant book that powerfully reinforces that everyone is important. Its colorful illustrations and uplifting message inspire confidence and resilience, crucial qualities for children and families as they embark on their educational journey."

- Abby Alexander, SPARK Program Coordinator

- ◆ What are some unique things about you that make you special?
- ◆ What are some unique things about your friends or family members that make them special?
- ◆ Can you tell me about a time someone made you feel like you matter?
- ◆ How can you help someone in your family or neighborhood feel important?
- ◆ If you could give a superpower to everyone that helps them feel special, what would it be?
- ◆ When do you feel the most proud of yourself?
